CONFERENCES

TOPICS

Uniquely Awesome Teams

Transform your team from a group of individuals who struggle to collaborate into a high performing team. By the end of this workshop, your team will know their strengths, the role each person plays, and have a clear picture on how to win as a team.

Elevate Your Brand

Want to make recruitment a breeze, increase sales and brand awareness, and position your top talent as the thought leaders they are? Personal brands build employer brands, and this workshop teaches them how to do it.

Unghostable Goals

You know how you do annual goal settings, and a year later look at the goals and giggle about how irrelevant they are? That won't happen again after this workshop.

Amplify Your Potential

Career growth is one of the highest priorities for top talent. But when they get the promotion they've been working for, too many realize they're in over their heads. Preparing your future leaders sets them up for success, and enables them to have an easier and more efficient transition into people management.

Become Unignorable

Your employees want to make an impact, let's help them make it unignorable. In this workshop, they'll learn how to identify priorities, plot impact that aligns with their strengths, and how to evangelize the results.

Best Boss Blueprint

Want to cultivate exceptional leadership? Then your managers need to know the standard operating principles of great bosses. By the time this workshop is done, they will have a plan to be leaders your employees love working for.

WORKING TOGETHER

When I started my career as a trainer in 2009, I knew that's what I wanted to do for life. Over my career, I've created custom training solutions for some of the largest companies in the world including Mastercard, Accenture, and many more. I'm thrilled that facilitating training, and eureka moments, is still a core part of what I do. - Jennifer
